

HUMAN RIGHTS (HR)

- Premise: HR of all young people are not all effective
- Objective: effective HR of all young people
- Perspective of intersectional diversity and indivisibility of HR

SUSTAINABILITY

- Premise: Indivisibility of the 3 strands of sustainable development: economic, social and environmental
- Objective: Don't leave anyone behind and get to the most marginalized people first
- Young people's perspective on the present and the future

PARTICIPATION

- Premise: Participation is a democratic principle, the basis of innovation in development and sine qua non condition of the person's independence and emancipation
- Objective: To ensure the participation of young people fully in all spheres of society and in all phases of youth policies and programmes
- Perspective of empowerment and positive action